

Eye donors are LIFE donors. What can YOU make possible?

A genetic eye disease left Robert, a dad to three, without sight and unable to work or participate in activities with his family. After years without sight, a corneal transplant made it possible for him to fully experience life again and reenter the workforce with his new real estate license.

Join the registry today.
www.RegisterMe.org

